taken place heen European and Malay sailors, which we regret to add, some soldiers of he 99th are victims. We believe the following are the facts of the case, which has now assumed the most secious proportions, Mulay sailors being employed for Coast work in preference to European, been dissolved by untual consent of the Partners. tution, entered a Mulay boarding house on accounts due up to date will be settled by him.

Monday night, with the intention of taking vengeance on their fortunate rivals. A melee ensued, the Malays of course using their knives. Some soldiers of the Doth hearing the noise, W will continue the same business as Clotheirs attempted to put a stop to the row. The re- and General Store-keepers at this Port in his own sult was that several of the sailors were made and begs to solicit a continuance of the wounded, and three of the soldiers were killed patrocage hitherto so liberally bestowed f at least so we understand. I ! Last night a number of men of the 99th heut on revenge, attacked the Malay boarding i houses which are situated on the scene of the strife. Several of these establishments they under the firm of Lincker & Co. gutted and pulled down, but they neither killed nor injured any one: Suspecting some such intention, a picket in charge of an officer was sent from the barracks to avert if possible any catastrophs. The officer scens to have behaved with rare coolness, for he hommed the assailants in by blockading both ends of the Street. The AIR, JAMES BANNATYNE is authorised to

All would leave ended quietly had not a body of Police unfortunately arrived at the scene. They of course came up belighd the picket, when withunderstand, right autongst the soldiers, killing two on the spot and wounding another mortotly. The conduct of the officer of the 99th is beyond all praise, for even then he controlled his men. We suppose the Police were in charge of Inspector Ellis, or some such ruffian, orpossibly of an officer, who a little while since was deep in a forecastle. The whole affair reflects the utmost disgrace of the executive of this Colony directly, and on the legislative indirectly. We shalf have a much to say on the subject. ARRIVALS Sept 13, Conea, Brit, sli, 800, Carry, from
